

Retreat Questions for Reflection on Relationships

Talk about your best relationship from your childhood or youth. Why was it good?

What is your best relationship now? Why is it good? Is it the same things that made your childhood/youth relationship good? What is similar and what is different between these two relationships?

What is/has been the hardest relationship for you? Why is/was it hard?

Do you have a relationship that has survived many seasons? If yes, what has helped it endure?

Do you have a relationship you treasured that ended before you wanted it to? If so, what contributed to it's end?

Do you have a relationship where you have needed to forgive or receive forgiveness in order for it to continue? If yes, share about how that happened?
